

AUSTRALASIAN RECYCLING LABEL

INTERMEDIARY TOOL KIT

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

INTRODUCTION

There's never been a more important time for Australians to dispose of their waste and recycling correctly. Research shows that Australians care about the environment and know that recycling is important, but with more than 200 recycling labels currently in use, getting recycling right can be difficult.

The Australasian Recycling Label (ARL) takes the confusion out of recycling by providing easy to understand instructions about how to correctly dispose of all parts of a product's packaging. By ensuring that the right packaging ends up in the right bin, we can reduce the contamination in our waste stream and keep valuable recyclable material out of landfill.

It's one part of the evidence-based, nationwide Packaging Recycling Label Program that was created by Planet Ark, PREP Design and the Australian Packaging Covenant Organisation (APCO). There are currently more than 200 organisations that have committed to the program and many more are joining every day.

Consumer education plays a critical role in solving Australia's waste and recycling challenges. Research shows there are two common sources that people turn to when trying to understand how to recycle correctly: for general recycling advice it's their local council, while for packaging specific information, they look to the label itself. With your help we can ensure all Australians are hearing a clear and consistent message about how to recycle correctly. The following kit has been designed to help you share information about the Australasian Recycling Label and answer any questions residents in your area might have about how it affects them.

NEWSLETTER/EDM COPY

We have created some text that can be included in your next employee or resident newsletter or EDM. This message was developed having behaviour change science in mind.

Many Australians think that they are recycling right, but Planet Ark research shows that 99% are still throwing items in the wrong bin. One of the main barriers to understanding which package goes in which bin is the lack of clear on-pack instructions.

Four in five Australians want to reduce the amount of waste we send to landfill. If you are one of them, you can now rely on the Australasian Recycling Label to ensure that your recycling efforts do not go to waste.

Unlike other labels out there, the Australasian Recycling Label is part of an evidence-based program that consumers can trust to take the confusion out of recycling. It tells you if your package goes into the recycling, the rubbish or if it can be taken to a drop off point.

When we dispose of our waste correctly, we are keeping valuable materials out of landfill, helping to make new products out of recycled content so we use less virgin materials, as well as protecting our environment and supporting the Australian economy.

Look for the label when dispose of your packaging today.

The Australasian Recycling Label tells you which part of the package belongs in the recycling bin, the rubbish bin, or if you have to do something else with it.

	Recyclable Coloured Recycling Symbol Separate each item and place it in your recycling bin
	Conditionally Recyclable Clear Recycling Symbol Can be recycled ONLY if you follow the instructions
	Not Recyclable Rubbish Bin Symbol Place it in your rubbish bin, this is NOT recyclable

Packaging Recycling is more than what you think an item is made of.
